

April Pillar of the Month: Honesty

How Do We Show Honesty?

- Tell the truth
- Admit your actions, even if you'll get in trouble
- Explain how a situation really happened
- Don't do things that you will have to hide
- Think before you act or speak

Talk about it !

- The first step in fixing a problem is being honest about it. Why is this?
- It takes a lot of courage to tell the truth. When is it difficult to be brave and honest?
- How can asking yourself, "What if?" before doing something help you be honest?

Read About It !

- Sam Tells Stories by Thierry Robberecht
- Ricky Sticky Fingers by Julia Cook
- The Boy Who Cried Wolf by B. G. Hennessy
- Princess Kim and Too Much Truth by Maryann Cocca-Leffler

Practice It !

Remind your child the importance of being honest before you ask about a situation. When your child is honest during a particularly difficult situation thank them for their honesty.
