HONORS PROGRAM

The goal of band or orchestra honor credit is to improve student musicianship. The directors have included a variety of activities. The activities are weighted based on their time commitment and direct musical impact. Students are not required to sign-up for honors credit. If they choose to take honors credit, they may not change levels through the year. They are committing to the honors program for the entire year. Band and Band Honors Credit are separate courses. Orchestra and Orchestra Honors Credit are separate courses.
